ABOUT RUSSELL DICKERSON:

Multi-platinum Nashville-based singer, songwriter, and multi-instrumentalist Russell Dickerson has established himself a prolific songwriter and powerhouse showman through memorable high-energy performances and eloquent songcraft spiked with spirit. His gold-certified full-length debut album, Yours, bowed at #5 on the Billboard Top Country Albums Chart and #1 on the Emerging Artists Chart. Ultimately, it yielded three consecutive #1 smashes, including the double-platinum "Yours" (christened "one of the hottest wedding songs of the year" by The Knot), platinum "Blue Tacoma," and platinum "Every Little Thing." Nominations piled in from the Academy of Country Music Awards, CMT Music Awards, and iHeartRadio Music Awards. Among his 2020 highlights, he received an ACM nod in the category of "Best New Male Artist of the Year." He has electrified audiences on tour with Thomas Rhett, Florida Georgia Line, Darius Rucker, Lady A and Kane Brown, in addition to headlining sold out venues everywhere. Sustaining a fervent following on social media (fondly referred to as his "RD Fam"), he launched his YouTube show, "This Is Russ," taking fans deeper into his world. In 2020, he released his second full-length album, Southern Symphony [Triple Tigers], a long-awaited masterful compilation, layered with hummable country anthems and pop flare. #### ABOUT LAUREN ALAINA:

Multi-Platinum-selling country star Lauren Alaina's current EP Getting Over Him features Lauren's signature powerhouse vocals across six tracks the star describes as "Empowering. This music feels resilient, more confident, bold and more secure." Called "stunning," "feisty and clever," and "emboldened," Getting Over Him follows Lauren's celebrated Getting Good EP. Having written all of the tracks across the two projects, both EPs reflect the star's willingness to dig deep and showcase life's highest of highs and lowest of lows. The very personal collection also includes Lauren's latest radio hit, the "deliciously good, sultry duet," Getting Over Him title track featuring Jon Pardi.

The pair of EPs follow Lauren's critically acclaimed sophomore album, Road Less Traveled, which landed on multiple "Best Of" lists including Billboard, Rolling Stone and Amazon, and it became the top-streamed female country album release of 2017. Praised as "full of life lessons and uplift" (PEOPLE) including Lauren's first No. 1 smash, "Road Less Traveled," "Doin' Fine," and the inspiring, "Three."

The "sassy Southerner with killer pipes" (PARADE) has shared the stage with superstars including Alan Jackson, Carrie Underwood, Luke Bryan, Martina McBride, Jason Aldean and Blake Shelton, and she sold out her own, first-ever headlining, That Girl Was Me Tour.

Lauren has received multiple nominations for ACM Awards, CMA Awards, CMT Music Awards, Teen Choice Awards, Radio Disney Awards and Billboard Music Awards. Awards include 2017 ACM New Female Vocalist of the Year, CMT Breakthrough Video of the Year for her "Road Less Traveled," and CMT Collaborative Video of the Year for "What Ifs," the 6x Platinum-selling No. 1 hit with childhood friend Kane Brown.

ABOUT REDFERRIN:

The buzz around Warner Music Nashville and Round Here Records' country artist Redferrin is impossible to ignore as one of Nashville's most unorthodox and innovative new singer/songwriters. His major label debut, "Red In My Last Name," is full of adrenaline-pumping energy and rebellious swagger, serving as a manifesto for his take-it-or-leave-it style. The track is just a sample of the kaleidoscopic musical textures Redferrin can create, aiming to become a sonic mirror held up to today's rural culture, which he has also reflected in recent releases "Wouldn't Hurt" and "Stuck." Born Blake Redferrin, the White House, Tennessee native spent his first 24 years on the pegs of a dirt bike, now harnessing that thrill-seeking spirit and relentless drive for a new kind of sound. He already boasts several successful cuts, including Florida Georgia Line's hip-hop inspired "Countryside," Nelly's recent smash "Lil Bit," and Dean Brody and The Reklaws' "I Can't Help Myself," which showcased a knack for party starting, hitting No. 1 in Canada and setting a record for the most one-week radio spins in the nation's history. Redferrin is set to release more new music this year as he continues chasing high-speed dreams with the throttle pinned and no kill switch.
