About The Bonner Family

The Bonner Family is far from the contemporary, traditional family. The family of 10 has been able to keep Jesus Christ as the center of their lives as members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Through their faith and love for music, they have been able to incorporate music into their respective careers. Despite residing in different states, they remain the best of friends. As they share their love for Christ and music, they hope to bless and inspire all that are compelled to listen.

About Jason Hewlett

Performer, entertainer, and celebrated host Jason Hewlett will serve as this year's emcee. Author and a member of the Speakers Hall of Fame, Jason will bring his talents of humor, music, and authenticity to the Christmas Carole Sing-Along stage. This is Jason's third year serving as emcee for the event.

About The Christmas Carole Sing-Along

For many years, Larry, Gail, and the Miller family attended a Christmas sing-along event presented by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in downtown Salt Lake City. When the event could no longer be hosted in the Tabernacle on Temple Square, its venue for the previous 12 years, the Millers offered the use of the Delta Center (now Vivint Arena) to preserve the tradition of providing a free event for the community. In 1997, the Millers hosted the first Christmas Carole Sing-Along, named by Larry, who wanted an old-fashioned feel. It has since become a holiday tradition, attracting more than 10,000 attendees each season. Over the years, many prominent Utah musicians and singing groups have shared their talents to brighten the holiday season.
